14th July 1952] [Sri M. Narayana Kurup]

simply because he is low-paid. We have read in the newspapers that some high officials of the Central Government were arrested on charges of corruption and let on bail. They were corrupt not because they were low-paid. But, at the same time I want that the services should be paid an adequate remuneration. Our administration and services should be improved morally. It is only by a moral reformation, that we can improve our services.

" We find that there is a feeling to-day that a man's private life has nothing to do with his public life. I may be thought to be an antiquated person. But I think there is a close relationship between a man's private life and public life. A man is to be judged not by what he says in public but by the small things that he does in private life. If we get men of honesty and integrity, though they may be a little deficient in ability, it is my belief that by their example, the administration can be improved."

MR. SPEAKER :—" The House will now adjourn to meet again at 10-30 a.m. on Tuesday, 15th July 1952."
